

THE LOS ALTOS MUSIC SCHOOL PRESENTS...

The Joy of Singing!

A fun and inspirational vocal workshop for choral singers, with internationally renowned singer and teacher

David Gordon

In this uplifting workshop, you will learn valuable skills to keep your voice healthy, and make your singing more vibrant and expressive.

David will lead the group in simple exercises you can continue to apply on your own to improve your posture and breathing, enhance legato singing, promote clear diction, and achieve a more effortless tone. Best of all, we'll practice these skills together by singing familiar hymns!

By combining good solid technical info with vivid visual imagery, David will lead you toward more joyful, confident singing!

- This workshop is suitable for singers of all ages and skill levels.
- No sightreading skills or prior vocal training necessary.
- If you are currently singing in a choir, this workshop is for you!
- The only prerequisites are a voice and a sense of adventure!

Described by the Washington Post as "a model of style and charm, and an irresistible performer," David Gordon has forged a unique and versatile international career as singer, vocal coach, and recording artist. He's been a featured soloist with virtually every major North American symphony orchestra and with other great orchestras and music festivals on four continents. He has portrayed a wide array of principal roles with the San Francisco Opera, Metropolitan Opera, Washington Opera (Kennedy Center), Chicago Lyric Opera, Hamburg State Opera (Germany), and other opera companies around the world. He appears on 15 classical CDs for RCA, BMG, Telarc, Decca, and other major labels.

David is the former tenor soloist and Chorus Master of the Carmel Bach Festival. As Director of Education, he now leads the Festival's nationally renowned training program for young professional singers. He has served on the faculty of Sonoma State University and UC Berkeley, and currently maintains busy private voice teaching studios in Carmel and San Francisco.
